

Alertness in Sedated Patients (ASP) score

Level Of Alertness	ASP score
Alert	A patient with this score will either have not yet had sedation or will be recovered and ready for discharge.	5
Relaxed	A patient with this score has received some sedation and will appear relaxed and calm but will still be fully responsive.	4
Lethargic	A patient with this score may have slurred speech and talk less but will still talk spontaneously.	3
Voice	A patient with this score will not talk spontaneously but will respond verbally when spoken to.	2
Pain	A patient with this score will not respond to voice or deep stimulation but will respond to painful stimuli.	1
Anaesthesia	A patient with this score will not respond to painful surgical stimuli.	0